

PUBLIC SUBSCRIPTION
TO KEEP CITY GOING?

Officials Intimate That Business Men May Be Asked to Contribute to Help Pay Expenses

TO CUT FIRE DEPARTMENT

Police Bureau Also Will Be Reduced Due to Failure of Additional 2 Mill Levy at Polls.

Public subscription is the only means left whereby the city of Tulsa can obtain funds for effective operation of the fire and police departments. The failure of the 2 mill payment measure at election will mean that the city is faced with the prospect of a complete shutdown of these departments. The city is now in a financial straits and the only way to keep the city going is by a public subscription. 25 after 18 months overseas and was discharged on May 28, returning to Tulsa about a month ago.

MOTHER CALLS ON POLICE TO FIND HOME FOR BABY

Rick and unable to work to support her little 3 month old daughter, an 18 year old mother walked tri-ply into the police station Wednesday afternoon for advice and help.
She has been living in Tulsa for about three years. A few days ago her husband left her destitute with no means of caring for her child.

Now she is trying to find a home for a home where it will be taken care of and given surroundings which will help to bring it up in the right way. Heared in a detention home herself, the mother does not want to see her child in the same surroundings.

Ed Rice took the girl's name and promised to find a home for the little smiling girl that the mother carried in her arms.

LEONARD WOOD ASKED TO TULSA BY LEGION

Joe Carson Post Will Extend Invitation to General to Visit City and Speak at Convention Hall

General Leonard Wood will be extended an invitation to visit Tulsa as the guest of the American Legion and deliver an address at the convention hall. When approached on the subject at a reception given in his honor in Oklahoma City, General Wood is reported to have said that he would be pleased to come to Tulsa as the guest of the war veterans.

According to Horace Hansen, president of the local post still in working through Gen. Ray Hoffman of Oklahoma City to secure a visit from General Wood. Hansen, who has spoken at Wichita, Kas., in Washinton, D. C., and in other cities.

William Viner was unanimously elected treasurer of Joe Carson post to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Virgil Jones.
